Mutt and Jeff must be dead.—Jasper News.
We hope so.

Beside amusing the present generation, Johnny Bunny did one great thing for posterity. He eternally disproved the saying that "Nobody loves a fat man."

If whoever took the big sheet of 2 cent stamps from the writing desk in the lobby of the postoffice, late yesterday afternoon will return them to the Star office, we will surely appreciate it, for without them we will be unable to mail the bills we have ready for tomorrow.

At the last meeting of Tulula Lodge, Messrs. R. E. Koonce and F. J. Burden learned their lessons in the third degree and were admitted to the full standing of Odd Fellowship. Past Grand Master Little and Delegate Stokes gave reports of the meeting of the grand lodge, and the meeting generally was most instructive and agreeable.

The proper botanical classification of Allie Angle seems to be worrying some of the brethren. The Ocala Star accepts our suggestion that he's more of a sunflower than a "shrinking violet," but the Tampa Times says he reminds it of a "dillberry." Just let's say he's a bird, and let it go at that.—Lakeland Telegram.

What's the matter with calling him a daisy?
A gentleman down at Zephyrhills has lots of eucalyptus trees, and writes to an Ocala citizen, to know if he can obtain a market for said trees in this city. It used to be supposed that eucalyptus trees were a preventive of malaria, but this belief has been brushed away by the mosquito bite therapy. Ocala just now seems given to thinning out rather than planting trees.

President Wilson has practically told Germany to mind her own business, and public sentiment sustains him. Now if he will inform the allies that American trade with other neutral nations must not be interfered with, and that American warships will if necessary, protect American merchant vessels, American public sentiment will sustain him again. And the allies will pay prompt and respectful attention to what he says.

Passage of the Davis bill puts Florida in a class by itself. It will not be a dry state, nor a dispensary state. It will be a state that recognizes a business as legitimate by licensing and taxing it, and at the same time tries to put it out of business by the most annoying and persecuting of regulations. The Star doubts very much that the law will decrease drinking. It fears that it will rather increase it. However, we will suspend criticism until the law has been tried.

Governor Trammell is criticised for his appointment of A. G. Campbell to be judge of the first circuit, on the ground that Campbell is a railroad attorney. Railroad companies do not employ jack-legs to represent their interests and the fact that the railroad companies had confidence in Campbell's ability as a lawyer is a strong reason why he should have been appointed judge.—Jasper News.

All of which is offset by the fact that, no matter how able and just he may be, the people will always be suspicious of any decision he may make favorable to a railroad. It is just as well to consider the people's wishes. They pay the bills.

We knew it would come. The Miami Herald nominates Miss Sue Barco as "the first woman candidate for governor," after woman suffrage carries. One trouble about these early political nominations, where the ladies are concerned, is that by the time the dear voters would get familiar with the name of the dear nominee the latter might change he name, and then a lot of advertising would have been wasted.—Lakeland Telegram.

Don't worry—there is a man in Clearwater we will "kill off."—Clearwater Sun.
Better wait till equal suffrage is adopted before you kill anybody.

They are trying to form the new county of Bloxham, the idea contemplating cutting off a portion of Marion county. A petition gotten up at Romeo asks that Juliette be included in the new county. Why, certainly—who'd be so cruel as to separate Romeo and Juliette?—Lakeland Telegram.

Well, Marion is doing her best to keep them together.

The Star has been asked to define the much esteemed but little understood Monroe doctrine, it being rather too general impression that the doctrine binds the United States to protect all American nations from attack from European powers. The doctrine, however, was adopted simply to prevent un-American nations from acquiring or increasing their possessions in this hemisphere. According to it, America would have no excuse for interfering with an European power which made war on an American nation for any just cause. In case said European power was the victor, however, and tried to indemnify itself by annexing territory, or in case an un-American nation tried to purchase American territory, the doctrine would come into effect. Since it was adopted, no nation, not even Great Britain, which at the time held more land in America than the United States, has increased its holdings, while Russia and Spain have parted with theirs. On the other hand, the United States has acquired Alaska and Porto Rico, beside the vast territory it took from Mexico.

BELIEVES IN FLORIDA

The members of the construction force of the Postal Telegraph-Cable Company, who have had headquarters in Ocala for the past two months, have left for Atlanta, where they will begin reconstructing the Postal's lines in that state.

In addition to building new lines between Jacksonville and Tampa, the Postal has remodeled its offices at Tampa, Plant City, Lakeland, Arcadia, Boca Grande and Ocala, and will shortly begin work on a new office in Jacksonville which Postal officials declare will be the finest and best equipped office in the South.

The rapidity with which new enterprises and industries are being built up in Florida and the steady increase in facilities for rapid communication and transportation throughout the state are hastening the day when Florida will stand out as the foremost Southern state.

Florida is coming into her own.

SPRING

We feel the cheering power of spring. It makes us whistle, it makes us sing. We leave behind the winter's blast, and welcome pleasant days at last.

Each moment brings us new delights. We dream away the days and nights. Our hearts one joyful anthem sing, "Praise God, our Lord, Almighty King."

Come, seem to say the blossomed trees, Enjoy with us the perfumed breeze, Come, sit beneath our rustic shade, Drink in the beauty nature made.

Wild flowers, beautiful and rare, Their fragrance scatter everywhere, The air is filled with merry song, By multitudes of feathered throng.

Hark to the ploughman's cheery song, As merrily he plods along, His manly shoulders well thrown back, His countenance by dust stained black.

Off in the early hours of morn, You hear some distant hunter's horn, And fiery steed with head thrown back, Close in pursuit of well trained pack.

That little brook, beside you hill, Ever warbling its dainty trill, Tells to the world a mystery; Spring has come in its history.

Youth, stay thou but a moment more, And they try thy fortune o'er; If thou art worn and hard beset, With sorrows that thou wouldst forget,

Go to the woods and hills and learn The knowledge that thou didst not learn; Find there a lesson that will keep Thy heart refreshed, thy soul from sleep. L. M. E. Fruitland Park, Fla., April 24.

The races are slated to start at 10 a. m.; three races before noon. Dinner at 12:30, with the handicap (final race) at 2 p. m. The prizes, which have been on exhibition at McIntosh for the past week, will be sent to Hawthorn Friday, where they will be on exhibit until the day of the races. With practically all of the tourists and commission men "cleaned out," the town is about to settle into its annual summer relapse, broken only by the troublesome mosquitoes and the baseball fans. The McIntosh juniors have played two interesting games so far this season, winning the first, but the last was lost by one score. They attribute their success to the fact "rooters" whom they call their mascots.

The Baptist Young People's Union has been doing things lately; rousing meetings every Friday evening, excellent attendance, and much interest throughout. A social is arranged for every two weeks.

The McIntosh high school will hold its commencement Friday night, in the Christian church.

BELLEVIEW

Belleview, April 29.—Mrs. J. N. Shedd made a business trip to Ocala last Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

This, the last week in the eight months' term of school, finds all the scholars taking their final examinations and making their best efforts to attain a high percentage on the general average of their studies.

Prof. and Mrs. Connor are bending every energy to make the final examinations a success, and it is the general consensus of opinion that this has been the best and most successful school year in Belleview. It is not likely that we will be able to retain Prof. and Mrs. Connor for another school year, as their ability and success in teaching here has won for them high praise in scholastic circles and there is a very strong likelihood of their being advanced very materially in the school world in this state. The annual school picnic will be held Thursday, May 6th at North Lake Weir, and all patrons of the school and their friends are invited to attend this delightful affair.

Misses Eleanor and Minnie Tremere went to Ocala Thursday afternoon for the purpose of attending the Eastern Star playlet, after which they spent the night with friends, returning home Friday morning.

Mr. Adolphus D. Mitchell of Summerfield favored Belleview with his presence Saturday night for the purpose of attending Masonic lodge meeting.

Mrs. Joseph Millsom is quite seriously indisposed, suffering from a very severe attack of rheumatism.

Miss Alice Campbell of Ocala is spending a few days in town, visiting with her friend, Mrs. J. N. Shedd.

Mrs. Delbert Haskell is in Ocala for a few days visiting with friends.

RHEUMATIC PAINS RELIEVED

Why suffer from rheumatism when relief may be had at so small a cost? Mrs. Elmer Hatch, Peru, Ind., writes, "I have been subject to attacks of rheumatism for years. Chamberlain's Liniment always relieves me immediately, and I take pleasure in recommending it to others." 25 and 50 cent bottles. For sale by all dealers.—Adv.
